

Application to register Palmer United Party accepted

The Tasmanian Electoral Commission has today accepted the application to register the Palmer United Party.

As an objection against the application was lodged, the objector has the right to appeal the decision to the Supreme Court.

If no objection is lodged, the Commission will proceed to register the party in time for the forthcoming House of Assembly elections.

The applicant and the objector have been provided with the reasons for the decision.

ENDS — 4:00 PM Friday 31 January 2014
