

MEDIA RELEASE – 2014 HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY ELECTIONS

Candidates announced

At noon today, names of the 126 candidates standing at the 2014 House of Assembly elections were announced.

A list of candidates for each division follows. Registered parties and groups are shown in ballot paper order, with ungrouped candidates to appear in the last column. Candidates are listed in alphabetical order within their registered party, group or ungrouped column. It should be remembered that names in each column on the ballot paper are rotated and may not appear in this order.

Electors who, for a valid reason, cannot get to a polling place on polling day must vote early. They can pick up a postal vote application from any post office or electoral office, or download one from our website tec.tas.gov.au. Alternatively, they can vote early at the following places during normal business hours:

Open from Monday 3 March (normal hours 9am to 5pm – open until 6pm Friday 14 March):

- Hobart – Ground floor, NAB House, 86 Collins Street
- Launceston – 85A George Street
- Burnie – Ground floor, Harris Building, 49 Cattley Street
- Devonport – LINC, 21 Oldaker Street

Open from Tuesday 11 March (normal hours 9:30am to 5pm – open until 6pm Friday 14 March):

- Glenorchy – LINC, 4 Terry Street
- Kingston – LINC, 11 Hutchins Street
- Rosny – LINC, Bligh Street

From Wednesday 5 March:

- Interstate – All Australian Electoral Commission offices in Australia (call 13 23 26 to find the nearest office)

YOUR VOTE IS BIGGER THAN YOU THINK.

For details on other ways to vote early go to www.tec.tas.gov.au or download our TEC phone app from the App store or Google play.

ENDS — 1:45 pm Friday 28 February 2014

MEDIA ONLY—Where candidates have given permission for us to release contact phone numbers to the media, a separate list is attached.
