

Early voting now available

Early voting services are now available for Hobart and Western Tiers electors who cannot vote on polling day Saturday 5 May. Voting at these elections is compulsory.

There are eight candidates contesting these elections with six standing for Hobart and two standing for Western Tiers. A list of candidates for each division follows.

Pre-poll voting

Early voting in person is available during normal business hours at these Australian Electoral Commission locations:

- Hobart — Hobart Area Office, Second floor, NAB House, 86 Collins St
- Launceston — Launceston Office, Ground floor, 87 George St
- Burnie — Braddon Divisional Office, First floor, Harris Building, 49 Cattley St
- Interstate — any Australian Electoral Commission divisional office (from Wednesday 18 April)

Postal voting

Electors can also apply for a postal vote. Postal vote applications are available at any post office within the Hobart and Western Tiers divisions, at any Tasmanian electoral office, on our website www.tec.tas.gov.au or by calling 13 23 26.

Electors who are overseas can receive an express vote. For details check the TEC website.

Assistance for vision-impaired electors

An electronic system to assist vision-impaired electors to vote independently will be available during the pre-poll period and on polling day. For more details electors can call 13 23 26.

Keep up to date with the TEC app

To find your nearest polling place, check results and more, simply download our app from the iTunes store. Just search for 'Elections Tas'.

---

ENDS — 2 pm Tuesday 17 April 2012

---

For further information — Andrew Hawkey DEPUTY ELECTORAL COMMISSIONER

