

If you can't vote on Saturday – cast a pre-poll vote

Electors who can't make it to a polling place on Saturday can still vote early by casting a pre-poll vote before 6pm on Friday at the following locations—

Hobart Australian Electoral Commission, second floor, NAB House, 86 Collins Street
Launceston 105 George Street

Electors interstate can call 13 23 26 anywhere in Australia to find their nearest divisional office.

Overseas electors

Electors currently overseas don't have to miss out on having their say. Simply go to the TEC website and follow the links to request an online overseas express vote. Electors have until 5pm Friday 2 May (Tasmanian time) to apply.

Polling Day

On Saturday, polling places are open between 8am and 6pm.

Polling place details are available on the TEC website and TEC app and will be published in the Mercury and the Examiner on Saturday. For further information, electors can call 13 23 26 or go to www.tec.tas.gov.au

Voting is compulsory for these elections and electors who fail to vote without a valid reason will be required to pay a penalty of $26.

TEC election app

Keep up to date with all the latest election information by downloading the TEC's free app for your mobile device. Simply search for 'Elections Tas' on either the iTunes or Google Play stores.

ENDS — 3:00 pm Thursday 1 May 2014

For further information — Julian Type ELECTORAL COMMISSIONER