

Robert Armstrong elected as Member for Huon

Following the counting of further postal votes, the TEC has today distributed preferences recorded in the election of the Member for the Legislative Council division of Huon.

Although there are still just over 300 postal votes outstanding, these cannot affect the exclusion of any candidate nor the final result.

Robert Armstrong has been elected as the Member for Huon.

Details of the count and the distribution of preferences are on the following page.

Final figures for the divisions of Huon and Rosevears will be available next Tuesday 13 May, the deadline for the return of postal votes.
