

The Enrolment and election booklet 2024

The Enrolment and election booklet 2024 has been produced by the Electoral Commissioner. Copies will be sent to Aboriginal groups. You can get a copy from the address on the front of this form, from our website at www.tec.tas.gov.au or by calling 1800 801 701.

The booklet includes–

- An introduction to the Aboriginal Land Council of Tasmania and a summary of the procedures for the election of 8 committee members.
- An explanation of the ALCT Electors Roll and the Preliminary Roll.
- The definition of ‘Aboriginal person’ under section 3A of the Aboriginal Lands Act 1995.
- Guidelines concerning the eligibility of a person to be included on the electoral roll for the 2024 Aboriginal Land Council of Tasmania elections on the basis that the person is an Aboriginal person.
- Procedures by which an objection to the transfer of the name of a person from the Preliminary Roll to the Electors Roll on the basis that the person is not an Aboriginal person, will be considered.
- The 2024 election timetable.

Personal information you provide on this form will be used by the Electoral Commissioner for the purposes of enrolment on the ALCT Electors Roll and conducting the ALCT elections. This information may be used for other purposes permitted by the Aboriginal Lands Act 1995 and may be disclosed to contractors and agents of the Electoral Commissioner. The Act requires that the ALCT Electors Roll be made available to ALCT.

Who can enrol?

To be included on the Aboriginal Land Council of Tasmania Electors Roll, a person must—

- be an Aboriginal person; and
- live in the electoral area for which they wish to be enrolled; and
- be at least 18 years of age.

The Aboriginal Lands Act 1995 defines 'Aboriginal person' in section 3A—

- (1) An Aboriginal person is a person who satisfies all of the following requirements:
 - (a) Aboriginal ancestry;
 - (b) self-identification as an Aboriginal person;
 - (c) communal recognition by members of the Aboriginal community.
- (2) The onus of proving that a person satisfies the requirements referred to in subsection (1) lies on that person.

Section 9(3) of the Act requires the Electoral Commissioner to prepare guidelines concerning the eligibility of a person to have their name on the roll on the ground of their Aboriginality. These guidelines are included in the 'Enrolment and election booklet 2024'—see over.

The ALCT Electors Roll and the Preliminary Roll

To vote or stand for election to the ALCT a person must be enrolled on the ALCT Electors Roll.

The ALCT Electors Roll is maintained by the Electoral Commissioner and currently comprises the names of those persons who were eligible to vote in the last ALCT elections held in 2021.

The procedure for adding names to the ALCT Electors Roll involves the names of applicants being placed on a Preliminary Roll. Following an objection and appeal process, the names of successful applicants are then transferred from the Preliminary Roll to the Electors Roll.

What happens when I send in my enrolment form?

The office of the Tasmanian Electoral Commission will acknowledge your enrolment form in writing. Your name will be placed on the Preliminary Roll. After the Preliminary Roll closes, at 5 pm on Friday 15 March 2024, it will be available for public inspection.

Objections to enrolment

Any person may then object to the transfer of the name of a person from the Preliminary Roll to the Electors Roll on the ground that the person is not an Aboriginal person. (Refer to the 'Enrolment and election booklet 2024' – see over).

You will be notified if your name is objected to and invited to make a submission.

NOTE: Sensitive Enrolment Records- The Electoral Commissioner is not required to divulge the existence or contents of records (submissions) provided to the Electoral Commissioner for or in connection with the preparation of a Preliminary Roll or Electors Roll which the Electoral Commissioner in good faith believes is regarded by the person who provided the information as being of a personally sensitive or confidential nature (see section 10AA of the Act).
