Local Government Elections in Tasmania

Every two years elections are held in all 29 municipal areas for the positions of mayor and deputy mayor and half the councillor positions. Where required, by-elections are held concurrently for vacancies that have occurred since the last elections.

The Tasmanian Electoral Commission (TEC) supervises the conduct of elections in accordance with the Local Government Act 1993. Elections by postal ballot have been held in 1994, 1996, 1999 (deferred from 1998), 2000, 2002, 2005 (deferred from 2004), and 2007 with the next elections due in October 2009.

Since 2000, mayors and deputy mayors have been elected directly by the electors in all municipal areas. Previously, in most councils, mayors and deputy mayors were elected by the councillors at the first meeting of a new council.

Candidate information booklets and complete election results for the state are available from the TEC and are posted on the TEC website www.electoral.tas.gov.au.

Casual vacancies

Casual vacancies are filled by recount where possible, unless the vacancy occurs within 6 months of a forthcoming election. Only unelected candidates from the relevant election may contest a recount. A candidate elected at a recount serves until the next council election. If a recount is not possible, a by-election is held—with the candidate elected to serve for the remainder of the term of office of the original councillor.

Elector polls

A council may hold an elector poll on any issue it determines. It may also be required to hold an elector poll following petitions from electors in accordance with Part 6 of the Act. A council is not bound by the result of an elector poll.

Electoral system

Voting in Tasmanian local government elections is not compulsory.

Elections for councillor positions are conducted using a system modelled on the Hare-Clark method of proportional representation used in Tasmanian House of Assembly elections.

Mayoral and deputy mayoral elections use a preferential system similar to that used for Tasmanian Legislative Council and federal House of Representatives elections.

Report on the 2007 Central Coast Council Election

Elections were held for the positions of Mayor and Deputy Mayor for 2 year terms, and 7 Councillors, 6 of which for 4 year terms and 1 casual position for 2 years.

15 856 Central Coast electors were enrolled for the 2007 elections, comprising 15 784 (99.55%) from the State House of Assembly roll and 72 (0.45%) from the General Manager's roll.

58.09% of Central Coast electors returned their ballot papers in comparison with 57.43% statewide.

Recounts

One recount was held between the 2005 and 2007 elections. Councillor Jan Edwards resigned on Monday 22 January 2007. Five unelected candidates from the 2002 Central Coast Council election contested the recount. The recount took place on Thursday 8 February 2007. Full details are provided on the back page.
