2022 LOCAL GOVERNMENT ELECTIONS

 Tasmanian
Electoral Commission

Introduction

Purpose of this booklet

The following information has been compiled to assist the media in complying with the advertising provisions contained in the Local Government Act 1993 and Local Government (General) Regulations 2015. Further information of a more general nature can be found in the 'Information for Candidates' booklet published for Local Government elections.

For ease of reading, some sections of the various Acts and Regulations have been paraphrased. However, it is important to note that this booklet has no legal status and should not be substituted for the Act itself.

References are to the Local Government Act 1993 and Local Government (General) Regulations 2015 unless otherwise specified.

(At the time of publication, the value of a penalty unit is $181.)

Role of the office of the Tasmanian Electoral Commission

The role of the office of the Tasmanian Electoral Commission and returning officers is to administer the election in accordance with the relevant Tasmanian legislation. While interpretation of the Act forms part of the daily function of the Electoral Commissioner and returning officers, it is not their role to provide legal advice.

It is in the best interests of broadcasters to obtain legal interpretations from their own legal advisers.

Legislation on the Internet

Tasmanian legislation can be found on the Internet at www.legislation.tas.gov.au

The Commonwealth Broadcasting Services Act 1992 can be found at www.austlii.edu.au

Guidelines on the requirements under this Act in relation to broadcasting political matter are available from the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) at www.acma.gov.au.

Changes to advertising reporting requirements and expenditure limit

The Local Government (General) Regulations 2015 were amended on 1 August 2018 and further amendments came into effect on 8 August 2018.

These amendments have resulted in:

- new reporting requirements that include all forms of advertising costs; and
- the following new expenditure limits, as at August 2022:
  - $18 000 for all candidates contesting an election for Clarence City, Glenorchy City, Hobart City, Launceston City or Kingborough Council.
  - $11 500 for all other candidates contesting an election for any other Tasmanian local government council.

More information is provided later in this booklet.

Advertising requirements

Authorisation requirements for radio and television advertisements

Tasmanian *Local Government Act 1993

There are no authorisation requirements for broadcasting election advertising contained in the Tasmanian Local Government Act 1993.

There are requirements under Commonwealth legislation (see below).

Federal requirements for radio and television advertisements

There are Federal legal requirements relating to the broadcasting of television and radio advertisements.

The Commonwealth Broadcasting Services Act 1992 provides that broadcast political advertisements must include certain 'required particulars'. Radio and television stations can provide more detailed information of the Commonwealth broadcasting requirements.

The Australian Communication and Media Authority (www.acma.gov.au) regulates broadcasting of political and election matters and the content of electronic communications. A fact sheet is available on its website.

Note: the 'broadcasting blackout' on political advertising contained in the Commonwealth Broadcasting Services Act 1992 applies only to Parliamentary elections and not to local government elections.

Offence for advertisement to refer to gift, donation or prize (section 278(5))

A person, within the relevant period, must not broadcast any electoral advertising that refers to the offering, promising or giving by a candidate or intending candidate of a gift, donation or prize to or for any specific club, association or body or to or for clubs, associations or bodies generally.

Penalty— A fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

Purchase of advertising time – consent of candidate (section 278 & regulation 22)

Regulation 22(1) of the Local Government (General) Regulations 2015 prescribes that a person must not purchase advertising time in relation to the election of a candidate without the written authority of that candidate. Therefore, if a person other than a candidate wishes to purchase advertising time, publishers should ensure they have sighted written consent from the candidate concerned.

Joint electoral advertising (regulation 22)

Under regulation 22(6), a candidate is taken to have incurred the total time of, and expenditure involved in, advertising which promotes that candidate, irrespective of whether the advertisement also promotes another candidate.

In other words, in the case of joint advertising, all candidates involved are required to declare the total time and expense of any advertisements in their electoral advertising returns.

Changes to the Local Government (General) Regulations 2015

The Government has made amendments to the Local Government (General) Regulations 2015, with changes coming into effect on 8 August 2018.

The election related changes to the Regulations are:

- The previous limits on the size and number of posters/signs have been removed.
Posters/signs still need to comply with the relevant local council planning scheme.
- The previous advertising limits on radio and television time and newspaper space have been removed.
- New reporting requirements that include all forms of advertising costs.
- The new expenditure limits as at August 2022 are:
  - $18 000 for all candidates contesting Clarence City, Glenorchy City, Hobart City, Launceston City or Kingborough elections.
  - $11 500 for all candidates contesting an election for any other Tasmanian local government council.
- All electoral advertising used during the relevant period is to be included in the expenditure limit.
Previously, the limit only included purchased newspaper, television and radio advertising.

The relevant period for the 2022 local government elections is 4 August to 25 October.
As the expenditure limit relates to the cost incurred, these limits are inclusive of GST.

Electoral advertising is defined in section 3 of the Local Government Act 1993 to include:

- any notice, sign or poster;
- any pamphlet or handbill;
- any “how-to-vote” card;
- any print medium;
- any broadcast by radio or TV;
- advertising on the internet.

Broadcaster's Electoral Advertising return

(section 279)

All broadcasters must lodge with the Electoral Commissioner an electoral advertising return within 45 days after the day the certificate of election is given. Completed returns will assist in the verification of the compliance of candidates with the legislation. If there is no electoral advertising to declare, a nil return must still be lodged. All returns will be made available for public inspection for a 12-month period.

Returns should show details of electoral advertisements broadcast during the 'relevant period', which starts on the 30th day before the notice of election and finishes on polling day (section 3).

Forms are available from the office of the Tasmanian Electoral Commission, by phoning 1800 801 701 or from the website (www.tec.tas.gov.au).

The declaration on the return that the information given is true, complete and accurate, should be signed by the broadcaster in front of a Justice of the Peace or Commissioner for Declarations.

It is an offence under the Act to fail to lodge a return within the time specified.

Penalty— A fine not exceeding 30 penalty units.

If the Electoral Commissioner is not satisfied that a return is authentic or complete, he may require further information.

Broadcaster's returns

The return of a broadcaster should include the following information in relation to each advertisement—

- Name of firm or person lodging advertisement (eg advertising agency) and name and address of person authorising the advertisement;
- Name of candidate(s) promoted in the advertisement;
- Identification number of advertisement (if timesheets/schedules are attached);
- Duration of advertisement;
- Date and time of each broadcast;
- Amount of charge; and
- Whether the amount was charged at the normal commercial rate.

NOTE: Production and other costs should now be included, even if they were incurred before the commencement of the relevant period.
